

Summary of POCACITO publications [1]

This report outlines a series of publications from POCACITO consortium partners that drew from the research and findings of the project. The document highlights four publications in particular that deal with a range of topics, including a roadmap for post-carbon transition in Istanbul (Baycan and Aygün, 2016), a discussion of the German Ökostadt (Döhler et al., 2014) and a typology of mid-sized EU cities undergoing a post-carbon transition (Beverage et al., 2016).
